OBITUARY.

WARREN EZRA FRANKENFIELD.

Warren Ezra, son of George and Elizabeth Frankenfield, of Ambler, died April 13, at St. Luke's Hospital, Bethlehem, Pa., after an illness of ten days of scarlet fever resulting in sceptic pneumonia. Deceased was born in Philadelphia March 19, 1899. his parents later moving to Ambler. He was educated in the Ambler public schools and entered Lehigh University in the fall of 1917, from which institution he would have been graduated in June. The University and his classmates have expressed his work and esteem there as a brilliant student of sterling character, kind personality, an honorable and trustworthy young man of great promise, with honesty of purpose, rectitude and sincerity. The remains were interred last Thursday in Rose Hill cemetery, Ambler.

Bequest to Upper Dublin Lutheran Church.

E. Josephine Wilson, late of Norristown, disposes of an estate valued at over $10,000 and makes bequests to various Lutheran charities.

The board of foreign missions of the general council of Lutheran church is given $500 to be known as the "E. Josephine Wilson Fund of Grace Lutheran church, Norristown." The income is to be used toward the support of a Bible woman in India and in accordance with the use of General Council.

The residue of the estate is given to a sister, Mary Amanda Fleck, for life, she to have the privilege of residing in testatrix's house on George street, Norristown.

After the death of the sister, the sum of $500 is to be given to the Upper Dublin Lutheran Parish, the income therefrom to be used for foreign missions. An additional sum of $50 is given to the trustees of the parish for the maintainance of the family burial lot.

The balance of the estate goes in equal shares to Katie Dewees, a sister Hannah Rex, a sister; Jacob D. Fleck, a brother and to the children of Irving W. Fleck, a deceased brother.

Norristown Man and Plymouth Girl Wed.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Hinderberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hinderberger, of Plymouth township, and Elmer F. Seckel, Jr., of Kohn street, Norristown, was solemnized, Tuesday afternoon, April 11, in the Trinity Lutheran Church. Rev. Aden B. MacIntosh, D. D., of Lancaster Pa., officiated at the ceremony in the presence of relatives and near friends of the bride and bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vogel attended the bridal couple as best man and matron of honor.

The bride wore a becoming suit of blue heather and large black hat with a lace veil. Her corsage bouquet was of roses and sweet peas. The matron of honor's suit was of dark blue serge with blue straw hat.

After the ceremony the couple were given a royal "send off" by friends and showered with rice and confetti. Upon their return from a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, they will live in Plymouth township. Both bride and bridegroom are members of the Trinity Lutheran Church choir.

Charles Henry Dorsey Accused.

An outbreak occurred in the circuit courtroom at Frederick, Md., on the afternoon of April 12, when jury acquitted Charles Henry Dorsey, colored of attacking Miss Delsie Tweedale, of Baltimore.

The negro prisoner was struck by members of the girl's family. An inkwell, hurled at him, struck the clerk of the court and Dorsey was saved from mob violence by one of the judges. Dorsey finally was spirited to jail and is protected by a heavy guard.

The scream of Miss Tweedale, "He is guilty," was the signal for the rush on the negro. Marcus Tweedale, her brother, struck Dorsey several times, cutting his cheek. Mrs. R. W. Rogers, a sister of Miss Tweedale, witnesses say, shouted: "It's a shame, he is guilty and they are letting him go."

The room was in an uproar. Judge Urner stepped down beside Dorsey and announced that the "law will protect the negro at all hazards." He ordered the court cleared. Dorsey was hurried out into an automobile and taken to the jail. Late that night it was reported that the negro had been removed from Frederick to another part of the state.

It is denied that he is the negro who formerly lived in Ambler, and during his residence here he was alleged to have been mixed up in several affairs that on one of two occasions landed him in the hands of the police. It is also alleged that because of his actions his wife who is an attractive looking colored girl temporarily lost her reason and is at present at the State hospital. White girls appeared to be Dorsey's favorites, and to the shame of some it might be stated he was their favorite, and it is also believed that had he not left Ambler when he did there would probably have been trouble. While here he was employed part of the time at the Keasbey and Mattison company's garage.

MAPLE GLEN

Miss Dorothy George has had bronchitis.

Mrs. Howard C. Mann, of Hatboro, spent a part of Saturday and Sunday at her daughter's, Mrs. Daniel F. Campman.

Several persons in the neighborhood are suffering with a malady resembling whooping cough, among them being Lawrence Scheibner, Jr., and Elva George.

Misses Elsie S., Edna D., and Hannah M. Mann spent Sunday at Mrs. Joseph Worthington's, near Jarrettown.

Charles Krewson, Misses Carrie and Jennie Krewson, and Samuel Krewson and family, of Hatboro, were among our Sunday callers. Mr. Krewson was a resident of our village more than 20 years ago.

By losing to Quaker City on Saturday, Lansdale failed to tie for first place in the Trapshooters' league. The score was 468 to 449, the Lansdale shots failing to sustain their reputations as leaders. Three of the Quaker City men broke 48 targets each, while the best scores for Lansdale were but 46.

STRASSBURGER WINS CUP.

Steeplechaser Takes Prize in Whitemarsh Meet.

"Wollferton Second" Wins the Feature Trophy—R. H. Furse, English Rider, Thrown From "Daybreak" and Badly Injured.

Wolferton second and Steeplechaser owed by R. B. Strassburger, of Normandy farms, Gwynedd Valley, won the Harston Cup Steeplechase race at the tenth annual renewal by the Whitemarsh Valley Hunt club over the splendid course at Erdenheim, in one Whitemarsh Valley Saturday afternoon. With the victory went the silver plate presented by H. Frazer Harris for this, the feature event of the afternoon.

Dooley, the aged Steeplechaser, ran a close second. He won over Wolferton second at the final races of last fall over the Rose Tree course, when the latter horse was disqaulified for a foul. Wolferton Second was most ably ridden by E. Waddy, Jr., who deserves much credit for his victory, which was won from Dooley in the stretch.

R. H. Furse, an English rider, was thrown by Daybreak just before the start of the race and badly injured. He was removed to the Chestnut Hill hospital for treatment. The horse plunged and threw Furse. C. M. Kline, who took the mount in the race, was thrown when about half-way over the course, but was not injured. This feature race was won last spring by the Welsh Strawbridge entry, River Breeze, and in 1919 it went to Aldrinn, the property of William J. Clothier.

The Whitemarsh Cup race went to Fern Brook, also the property of R. B. Strassburger, which was ably ridden by C. S. Cheston. Red Wing, the second horse, was always the factor in this race, and the finish between him and Fern Brook was a close one in the stretch, Ruskin finished third. George Brooke was thrown in this race when his entry, Aleppo, stumbled.

The Amateur Cup race for half-bred hunters brought out a field of eight sturdy jumper. Barricade the entry of John Stokes and ridden by him, was never in danger of losing the race, leading from the first jump. Demi Tasse was the contending factor at all times, and Alacrity ran a good third.

Two additional Hunt Club meets will be staged in suburban Philadelphia this fall, when the new course is laid out over the Joseph Murphy farm at Phoenixville, where earlier races will also be held. Later hunt meet races will be given at the Gwynedd Valley Normandy Farms, of R. B. Strassburger, who will have the present course on the farm changed a bit to improved it which should make it one of the best in this section.

Harston Cup Steeplechase—For any horse the bona fide property of a member of a recognized hunt club. To be ridden by gentlemen riders acceptable to the committee. Weight 165 lbs., overweight allowed. SENTENCES IMPOSED.

Several Local Cases Disposed of at Court.

Male and Female Highwaymen to Serve Jail Term—Drove Car While Intoxicated—Sentences Rather Heavier Than Usual.

The finale to the romance of Victor D. Hollis, college man, engineer and instructor, of Philadelphia and Toronto, and Marjorie Morris, the pretty little miliner's apprentice, of Toronto, came before Judge Miller in court room No. 2.

"C'est la femme," the dictum of the famous French jurist, was the keynote of Judge Miler's handling of the sentences of the pair who figured in one of the most remarkable cases that has ever come before the local courts.

That "it was the woman" who was responsible for the fall of the man from his estate in life, in the mind of the court, was indicated by Judge Miller's remarks while sentencing—in fact, he made practically a direct statement to that effect.

Hollis was sentenced to two years and six months in the country jail; Marjorie to one year and six months.

The pair had pleaded guilty to highway robbery, in stealing a Paige touring car, which they had hired in Philadelphia to take them obtensibly to Hatboro. Between Willow Grove and Hatboro they had held up the chauffer at the point of the revolver; made him get out, bound his hands and abandoned him, going with the machine to Reading. Marjorie had been deserted by her husband, and Hollis had been ordered from his home by his wife, because of a quarrel and felt practically deserted by her.

Charles Lunday, driving an automobile while intoxicated. Costs ,$100 fine and one month in the county jail.

Harry Vaugan driving an automobile while intoxicated, $100 fine and costs. Vaughan was the owner of the car which Lunday wrecked. The testimony of himself and his companion at the Lunday trial showed that he had been removed from the driver's seat by his companions and the wheel given to Lunday, because he was too drunk to operate the car properly. Judge Miller directed that the prosecution should be brought at the conclusion of the Lunday trial.

J. H. Whitmer, driving an automobile while intoxicated. $200 fine and costs. This is the defendant who put up the defense that the alcohol that was smelt after the wreck came from his leaking radiator and not his breath. It was developed that the defendant is a contractor and recently began work on a $200,000 contract at Hagerstown Md.

Matilda Santori, of Norristown. Selling liquor without a license. The defendant is a grandmother. Sentenced to three months in the county jail and a fine. Upon payment of fine and costs, jail sentence was remitted.

Judge Solly imposed a sentence of $150 fine and costs upon Octavio Spurio, who was charged with aggravated assault and battery in connection with the injury inflicted when his auto struck Marie Pastorius in Bridgeport.

Sentence was suspended by Judge Solly, when J. Gosher pleaded guilty to the larceny of a Cadillac machine in Jenkintown. Chief Thomas, of that borough , was named probation officer for Gesner.

A sentence of four months in addition to $100 fine and costs was imposed by Judge Solly upon Joe Di Coski, who was convicted of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. The accused was apprehended when he appeared in the court, in November last, his arrest being made at the instance of District Attorney Renninger, after that official had his attention called to Di Coski's conduct.

Earl Potteiger, the well known football player, hero of a score of gridiron battles at Conshohocken, Norristown, Pottstown and elsewhere, and Anna A. Kelley, young, pretty and petite, were placed on trial in Court Room No. 2, to answer charges of larceny and wilful taking and carrying away of fruit the accusations being the result of an automobile ride which the pair took into the country from their homes in Pottstown.

KNOW OUR GOVERNMENT

Interesting Publication Available to Our Readers.

A New Volume Issued by the First National Bank of Ambler That Many Citizens Are Now Adding to Their Libraries.

Of all knowledge, a knowledge of the workings of our government should be at the very fundation of the education of every citizen of the United States.

For the past four months the First National Bank of Ambler has been distributing, without charge, to the citizens of this community an interesting series of folders that describe the activities of the different departments at Washington which are maintained for the benefit, comfort and safety of every citizen of this country.

On of the best things in the above series is the attractive and interesting way in which it is gotten up. Old stereotyped phrases often used by political orators and others who have reason to describe the activities of our government, have been entirely avoided. The series is written in a way that is both understandable and entertaining.

Among the numbers that have already been sent out by the Bank is one on the Declaration of Independence. Another, entitled "The World's Biggest Job—The Presidency!" Others have been on "The Department of State," and "The Post Office Department," and on May 15 will be issued "The World's Foremost Engineer—The Department of the Interior."

Each of these series has been prepared after careful research and investigation. The information is authentic and worth while in every sense. The article which is to appear is on the Department of the Interior.

The Department of the Interior is perhaps the least heard about of all of the government's departments. Its undertakings, however, are of the very greatest importance. And they are not only important but romantic and interesting.

Under the magic touch of its engineers, deserts are reclaimed and vast mineral resources in far distant places are discovered and preserved for the common good.

To this department is also due the credit for our splendid national parks such as the Yellowstone and Mesa Verde. Its agents are constantly on the lookout for the man who tries to exploit natural riches in a way that will depreciate their value to our country as a whole.

It is our understanding thatthe First National Bank of Ambler still has a limited number of the folders left and that those who wish it can still be placed upon the mailing list for the remainder of the series and will also receive th back numbrs.

All of those who avail themselves of this opportunity of adding an interesting volume to their libraries should secure the portfolios which the bank is furnishing. These are neat and attractive in design, and are of just the right size and will serve to prevent the scattering and losing of any number of this valuable collection of articles.

Cheltenham Wins.

Celtenham can well be proud of its school children in the recent music competition between children of the schools of Cheltenham Township, Abington Township, Jenkintown, every prize won by Cheltenham township children was won by a Cheltenham village girl. Thep rize winners were Kathryn Sullivan, Lena Schubert and Mabel Worthington.

Three State Police in Collegeville.

State police will, within a few days, aid the people in the lower Perkiomen valley, and in the section between Norristown and Pottstoown, is enforcing order.

Burgess F. W. Gristock, of Collegeville, has been informed that arrangements are being made or the establishing of a state police station at that place.

According to Lieutenant William Snyder, in command of the barracks at Pottsville, the Collegeville unit will include three men, who will patrol the territory along the Perkiomen and Skippack valleys. Two saddle horses and one motorcycle will be at the disposal of the police.

Ruos Denies Purchase

Recently it was persistenly rumored that the General Motors plant in Doylestown had been sold to Henry D. Ruos, and that the plant would be put in full operation again in a short time.

Mr. Ruos denied a report that he had passession of the plant, had bought it, or that there was any definite arrangements at present as to what will be done with the plant.

Election Officers May Get Pay Increase

With the backing of the legislative committee of the State Association of County Commissioners the bill which provides an increase in pay for election officers, is due for passage in the Legislature.

This bill is before the house, it provides $6 per day for each election official, with $1 additional for every 100 votes cast and counted after the first 150 ballots.

The big increase in voters, by reason of woman suffrage, will make it almost impossible to get election officials to serve at the old rate. The house bill providing for an increase is favored all over the state, and will prevent the numerous resignations which counties have experienced along election time.

Motorists Watch Legislation.

Attorney C. Townley Larzelere, of Norristown, has been elected chairman of the Legislative Committee of the Keystone Automobile Club.

The other members of the committee the Edwin M. Abbott, Thomas Cahall and Former Assistant United States Attorney Todd Daniels, of Philadelphia; Robert W. Beatty and J. Borton Weeks, of Chester.

The purpose of the committee is to watch beneficial and adverse legislation at Harrisburg and to take action accordingly.

Rotary Folk Dine at Country Club.

The Rotary Club of Norristown held its weekly luncheon, at the Plymouth Country Club with the county treasurer and county commissioners as guests.

H. H. Ganser, manager of the Counties Gas and Electric company, gave an enlightened talk on the subject of public utilities, showing the tremendous efforts being made by such corporations to render the best of service to the public and also showing how in many cases public sentiment is unjustly directed against their efforts.

Samuel Roberts spoke on the subject of the proposed new modern bridge to connect Norristown and Bridgeport. He stated that the people are strongly in favor of the project and that they are responsible for choosing DeKalb street as the logical location for the new structure.

Qukertown Property Sold.

The Ball furniture store building Quakertown, has been sold to Elias Weiss for $17,500. The business has been in the Ball family or about fifty years. The deal is the largest real estate transaction there in years .The Balls, it is said, will continue business in part of the structure. Several months ago it was proposed to make a moving picture house in the building, but these plans did not mature.

Award County Contracts.

The county commissioners have awarded contracts for ballot boxes and election booths to the Pennsylvania Construction Co. A contract for dog licenses and enrollment blanks went to the Thompson Co., of Harrisburg, and the Royal Typwriter Co., was low bidder for two machines.

Will Get Back Pays.

District Attorney Frank X. Renninger, his three assistants, and Miss Mary L. Cleaver, stenographer, were awarded back salary for ten months, by a decision of the local court, as handed down by Judge Miller. The writ of mandamus asked for by the District Attorney to compel payment of these salaries was granted after many months of argument and anxious waiting on the part of the county officials.

The writ was directed aginst the county commissioners and county Controller Smedley a few weeks after a decision of a Schuylkill county Judge who declared the office of District Attorney a fee office. The decision was called to attention of the Montgomery county officials, who held up the salaries last June until the matter could be decided by judicial opinion.

Controller Smedley was delighted, this morning, when he heard that the opinion was favorable to the attorneys. He declared that the salary warrants aggregating $10,433.36 would be made out at onde, and rushed tohrugh.

Mr. Renninger will receive almost a full year's pay. His check will call for $4166.68, for ten months. A. H. Hendricks, first assitant, will receive $2500, and J. Berriett Holland, second assistant, will get $1666.68 in a lump. The indictment clerk, George C. Corson, whose status was determined to be assistant "learned in the law," will get $1000, and Miss Cleaver's total is $1100.

The decision is based generally upon the hypothesis that the people have the right to determine how the county officers shall be paid, either by fees or by salaries, and that, in the judgment of the Court, the people have directed by the Act of 1905.

ORELAND.

The past week saw the arrival of T. L. Palmer and family to spend the summer at his home on Bala avenue. avenue

The Women's Auxiliary of Oreland Lutheran church had a very successful meeting recently at the home of Mrs.. H. Reid. The financial report of the lecture given by Dr. Dager, of Philadelphia, a few weeks ago was handed in and showed a very tidy sum for the treasury. The women are planning a surprise for their annual meeting which occurs in May. It is rumored that they are out to beat the one given by the Brotherhood in January.

Mr. Bothe, of Weldy avenue, is making extensive alterations in the grounds surrounding his commodious home which tend to improve and beautify the property very much.

A delegation from the Community Brotherhood, composed of Messrs. Cressman, H. C. Jones, Bowen, W. H. Calverly, Jr., and Everitt, waited upon the township commissioners of Springfield township, placing before them through the good offices of Mr. M. Gordon, a request for certain improvements in the town. The delegation was well received by the commissioners and the improvements requested were promisd by the board to the limit of its ability to do so.

There was also present at the time a delegation from the Oreland Fire company, Charles Schneipp, as spokesman, made a plea for more financial support from the Board for the operating expenses of the fire company. The board in reply gave its appreciation of the work done by the company and requested that the fire company turn in a detail account of its receipts and expenditures for the year—promising to help out as far as possible if a deficit occurs.

The regular monthly meeting of the Community Brotherhood of Oreland was held Tuesday evening, April 12, in Aiman's hall and was very largely attended. During th evening, three new members were added to the rolls, being Messrs. Martin, Houpt and Osborn, Mr. Evritt, Chairman of the Civic Betterment Committee, gave a full report regarding the Gas Protest situation since last meeting. It was the sense of the meeting that a new canvas should be made of all the consumers of gas in order that Oreland may deliver its quota for the expenses of the engineering check-up now being done in behalf of the Consumers. The debate of the evening was, "Resolved that Germany should pay the indemnity as demanded by the Allies." The affirmative was upheld by W. H. Calverly, Jr., and John Snyder, while the negative was defende d by A. Bothe and C. Zoll. The arguments were well handled by both sides, and the judges decided in favor of the affirmative by the merest margin.

It has been noticed that Charles Zoll, of Park avenue, has been very busy lately in landscape gardening and no doubt the results will be a credit to the surrounding grounds.

Mr. Ely's garage looks very well in its new spring coat of paint.

School Condition Denounced.

A bomb was thrown into the tranquility of a meeting of the Lansdale School Welfare association recently when a father of three children in the Lansdale schools appeared at the session and declared the sanitary conditions at the East Ward school are horrible. He branded the conditions as dirty and filthy and demanded that they be remedied at once. He said one of his children has diphtheria and he blames the sanitary conditions at the school as the cause.

Vote for $100,000 School

By more than a two to one vote, residents of Hatfield township and Hatfield borough voted to create a bond issue of approximately $100,000 for the erection of a consolidated school. The school will be a twelve-room, four-year vocational school. Close to 700 pupils will attend. There are 532 pupils in the township and 184 in the borough.

Neshaminy Movings.

Considerable moving is going on in the vicinity of Neshaminy among them being the following:

Harry Burmingham and family, of Willow Grove, have moved on Mr. Taylor's farm, on the township line road.

Frank Darrah and family have moved to New Hope to one of Mr. Smith's farms. Felix Heath has moved in where Dr. Darrah vacated, being one of the houses on the Belvidere farms.

Ed Shimp has moved from ah ouse on Street road belonging to Frank Carrell to a farm of Charles Wodock's near Neshaminy, Clifton Tucker moving in where Mr. Shimp vacated.

People Carry Liquor With Them Nowadays.

The prohibition has made drunkeness a more dangerous condition than ever before, might be inferred from what Judge A. S. Swartz said, recently when he sentenced Mard Byrd a Chester business man, to five days in jail for driving an automobile while intoxicated.

In these days of supposed dryness, people carry liquor with them in automobiles, and drink it at times and in places heretofore shunned, said the Court. At present term, there are five cases of driving while intoxicated to be tried. ...

Lansdale Laundry Fire.

—During last year 1,546 marriage licenses were issued in Montgomery county, of 104 more than thep revious year.

—Employes of the Lansdale plant of the Abram Cox Stove Company have agreed to accept a 15 per cent. reduction in wages.

Gassing The Peach Tree Borer.

Gassing the peach tree borer is the latest and most approved method of getting rid of this dangerous and costly post, according to the Bureau of Plant Industry, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. With the gas method the borers are destroyed in much the same manner as soldiers were killed by poisonous gas during the recent world's war, the only difference being that the gas which The Federal bureau of entomology in 1919 conducted experiments that proved the effectiveness of the gass method.

Paradichlorobenzene is the name of the chemical used to generate the gas and it can be purchased for about 25 or 30 cents a pound, about an ounce being necessary for each tree. The chemical is simply placed about the tree near the base and the chemical is covered over with earth. The gas which results does not harm a human being but it spells quick death for the peach borers.

The gas should only be used on strong, healthy trees that are at least six years old. For a full description of the manner in which the peach borers can be gassed write to the Bureau of Plant Industry, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, Harrisburg Pa.

Shall We Spray The Apples?

After the recent disastrous frost many apply growers are in doubt as to whether there will be enough fruit left on their trees to warrant spraying and they are preparing to drop the spray program altogether.

It is not wise to make a too hasty decission, on this point. Unless the loss is total or nearly so, the fruit that is left will be very valuable next fall, not only on account of the scarcity that will then undobtedly exist, but also because last year's ample crop has stimulated a demand for apples, created on "apple habit" which will no doubt favorably affect the price the grower will receive.

The foresighted grower of apples will look carefully into his own situation before deciding to omit the spray program this year. A cursory examination of an orchard for bud injury may be very misleading as many old growers will recall from past experience. Normally a fruit spur bears a cluster of five to ten buds, and if only half the spurs bear an apple each it will be a good crop. Thus a very small proportion of good buds left at this time may set a better crop than one might think. Since different orchards and different varieties have been variously affected by the frost careful examination should be made of all the varietites, opening all the buds in clusters taken from a number of places over several trees of each variety. From the information obtained in this way a fairly definite estimate can be arrived at as to the present prospect for a fruit crop, and this is the only way in which it can be obtained for any particular orchard. General statements are not accurate enough to justify taking chances with the important expenditure for spraying or with possible profit in such a year as this promises to be. The logical policy is to ask the trees themselves what they are prepared to give in the way of a crop, and then put on the spray or omit it according to the answer.

Last Rites Over Rev. W. H. Mentzer.

Funeral services were held, on April 7 in Lansdale over the remains of the late Rev. William Harrison Mentzer, a widely known Baptist minister, who died April 4 at the family home, 102 East Sixth street, that borough. Deceased was 77 years of age, and for over 47 years had not only been active in the ministry, but a contributor to man church publications. Interment at Trunkhannock on Friday.

Mr. Mentzer was born at Chambersburg, Pa., and was graduated from Bucknell university and the Crozer Theological seminary. He established the Baptist churches, at Athens, Trunkhannock and Hazleton and was pastor at Pottstown, Troy, five years at Royersford.

He is survived by his widow three sisters and one brother, and the following children: Edwin T. Mentzer, of San Francisco; Mrs. Harold Robinson, of Norristown; Mrs. C. A. Vance, 5601 Willows avenue, Philadelphia, and Ruth Mentzer, of Lansdale.

To Let Pastor Sell Church Property.

At a meeting of the parishoners of St. Matthew's Church held for the purpose of ascertaining what disposition should be made of the old church property at Hector and Harry streets, which was vacated when the congregation removed to the present handsome edifice at Third and Harry streets, it was voted to give permission to Rev. Gallagher, the new rector of the congregation, to dispose of the property to the best interests of all. There are a number of prospective purchasers, including one who wishes to erect an up-to-date motion picture theatre on thep remises.

On Thursday last on the Ambler grounds the Ambler High School team lost to Doylestown High School team in a well played game of ball by the score of 0 to 6. Doylestown hit timely and played a fine fielding game. Ambler's batters were not up to their true form.

Attorney Harold G. Knight announces that the case of his client, Miss Helen Pole, who had one of her limbs cut off by a train at the Lansdale station last winter and who has instituted proceedings against the Philadelphia and Reading Railway company for $50,000, has an early listing and will come up in the Philadelphia courts some time next month or early in June.

Pamphlets from the United States department at Washington, secured through the cooperation of County Farm Agent A. K. Rothenberger, have been received at the Ambler bank. The subjects are "Better Seed Corn" and "Control of the Root, Stalk and Ear Rot Diseases of Corn." These bulletins have been mailed to those persons who were entered in the bank's last season's contest and copies on the above and other kindred subjects are available on request at the First National Bank of Ambler.

Ambler people are to be congratulated over having produced here Thursday, May 5th, the photo play production of the famous play of George Ariss, "The Devil." This is the first motion picture play ever produced by this famous actor. While the title of the play isn ot high sounding, nevertheless the play is not high sounding, nevertheless it is a triumph of acting and a master piece of drama. Those who recently saw Mr. Arliss in this picture at the beautiful Stanley theatre in Philadelphia have asked the question: "Is he human or inhuman? Does he love or just deceive? Is he friend or enemy?" There is a reason for asking these questions, because it is something different from what has been shown on the screen today. There is a wonderful moral to the play, and besides it thrills and is pleasing to the eye, while one is amazed by its brilliance, splendor and elegance in order that the play may bes hown to advantage there will be an orchestra of seven pieces to furnish the music and as an added feature there will be a loval vocal soloist whose name will be announced later. The play will be given as a benefit for the social service work of Ambler and vicinity. Already the demand for tickets has become so great that he management has agreed to give three performances, one in the afternoon and two in the evening, in order that all may see this famous play who desire. Tickets can be purchased at any of the leading stores in Ambler, but no tickets will be placed on sale before noon of Thursday, April 28th.

Very few of our residents realize that there has been started in Ambler an industry that is likely to develop into one of the principal manufacturing concerns of the borough. Several months ago the property situated at the corner of Spring Garden stret and Rosemary avenue was purchased by the Alloway Products Corporation with main offices in the Liberty building, Philadelphia, as a manufacturing plant for the famous Alloway paint, which has been made by the members of the Alloway family for more than 40 years, but never placed on the market. The property bought was formerly owned by C. M. Heiss, and after considerable expense the building has been fitted up for manufacturing purposes, and the latest devices for protecting the workmen. The new concern will manufacutre a water proof paint that has a guarantee back of it for many years standing. It is claimed for it that it will stop all leaks and that it is chemically inactive to metal. It is adapted for woodwork s well as for all kinds of metal. Former postmaster, Joseph A. Buchanan is business manager of the local plant while John N. Dersan is the general salemanager. Mr. Buchanan stated last week that as soon as a few minor adjustments are made to the machinery the plant will start operation. There are now sufficient orders on hand and probable prospects of the sales of the Alloway paint to keep the plant in operation during the entire year.

For so early in the season one of the best games ever staged on the West Point diamond was played last Sunday between the home team and Souderton. After battling all afternoon, until darkness set in the game was called a draw at the close of the 15th inning. Each side was only able to push one lone tally over the rubber. Quite a large number turned out to see the contest, but the weather condition was too unfavorable to enjoy the game and several left the grounds before the game was called. Games have been booked for every Sunday, and another good contest may be looked for on the home grounds on the next Sunday of play.

Edward Schrepple, who met with a painful accident a short time ago and which resulted in the loss of one of his eyes has returned from the Montgomery hospital. Some time ago, Mr. Schrepple was in the act of chopping wood when the hatchet struck a wedge and a piece of steel from the wedge struck him in the eye, penetrating quite deeply in the eyeball directly near the sight. Home remedies were applied, but later medical attention was sought and a physician at Norristown with the aid of a magnit drew the piece of steel from the eye. The next morning, however, the wound was discovered to be infected and the eye had to be removed, the operation being performed at the Montgomery hospital. Mr. Screpple is now at his home doing as well as can be expected.

After the ceremonies the visitors will partake of a banquet, Degree Master Walter Smith and his staff are making an effort to properly entertain the visitors while in our town.

The members of the April grand jury of Montgomery county in their report submitted to the court, recommended that more work be given the prisoners in the jail, but Judge Swartz states that little can be done to alleviate this situation under the present code of laws framed by the State Legislature. The jury also recommended that a live wire be erected around the top of the jail wall to prevent escapes from prison. This was no doubt prompted by the escape the past week of Lawrence Farley a three-year convict. All county property was found to be intact and in good condition.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Having sold our Ambler home, Mrs. Dager and I will sell all our antiques and practically all our modern furniture, retaining but few pieces for our summer bungalow. The list of antiques contains many pieces owned by us for some time and the balance are pieces that I have picked up from time to time in my real estate work. Many of these pieces were bought by me from the old Penrose Homestead at Warrington, Bucks Co., Pa. Other pieces picked up here and there at old farm homes. The modern furniture has nearly all been bought new within the past three years. Not an article in the sale is entered by any dealer, and with the exception of 4 rugs, every article is the personal property of Mrs. Dager and myself. Everything is to be sold for the high dollar with a limit placed on not more than three items of the list. Terms - positively cash.

There will be music by the Colony Club quartet, also the members will have the pleasure of hearing Mr. Gurne Mattox, violinist.

Last week at a regular session of criminal court there were put on trial the two West Ambler boys, Joseph Piper and Michael Tamborino, who had no fewer than seven or eight charges to face. The former is colored and the latter is an Italian, and both are about 17 or 18 years of age. They were found guilty, but because of their youth and the condition of the Tamborino boy's mind considerable leniency was shown by the court in sentencing them. Piper was sent to the Huntington Reformatory for two years and Tamborino was sent to an institution in the western part of the state for feeble minded children. The crimes to which the boys confessed to the police were the robberies of the homes of John Morris, on Mattison avenue, and of Mrs. Felt, on Hendricks street, which took place on Sunday night, January 16; the robberies in Conshohocken last December, when Mrs. McCoy's candy store and Talone's tailor shop were burglarized; the robberies of Shull's cigar store and Clarke's hardware store, which occurred last September. In addition Piper confessed to having attacked and robbed Fred Brown, on the Hoopleston road, Fort Washington, last fall. There were many who believe that the boys did not commit these crimes, to which they confessed, yet there were circumstances surrounding the cases that convinced others, and especially the police, that they are guilty. A number of the young men employed at the Main street garage, where Piper was employed, also were positive that Piper could not have robbed Shull's cigar store. These young men stated on the witness stand that on the night the latter robbery took place Piper was with them attending the motorcycle races at Point Breeze race track. However, against this testimony was a cancelled check indorsed by Piper, which was cashed as a local bank and which is alleged to have been taken together with the money from Mr. Shull's safe. Piper was never in trouble before and was trusted by those who employed him. Up to the time of his arrest he was considered a hard working and strictly honest boy. However, the same can not be said about Tamborino, as he had been arrested a number of times on the charge of larceny, and just before Christmas he was committed to jail on a charge of larceny preferred by the boy's father, who relented later and had him discharged just before the holidays.

Rev. G. G. Dilworth, pastor of Calvary Methodist Episcopal church, on Sunday evening, commenced an interesting series of sermons on the general subject of "Men Who Failed, and Why." His first theme was on Balaam, alias "The Two-Faced." Next Sunday evening the subject wil be Achan, alias "The Stone Buried." May 1, Sisera, alias "The Star Fighter;" May 8, Naman, alias "The Gallows." Especial music is rendered by the two vested choirs. The eighth anniversary week will be observed from May 1 to 22, announcement of which will be later.

A number of young men of the borough and vicinity were before Justice of the Peace Urban on Monday evening charged with creating a disturbance one night last week in front of Louie Yow's laundry, The testimony showed that the young men, whose names are withheld for the present, were warned from the laundry, also later told by the officer that they must stop annoying Yow. However, the warning did no good, because last Wednesday evening when the young men in question went to the laundry they repeated their previous performance and when remonstrated with by a resident they dared or invited him out in the street to fight. As a result of their being brought before the local justice two were obliged to pay a small cost, while the third had a fine and cost to pay.

A rummage sale will be held Thursday, April 28, all day, at 427 Butler avenue, formerly occupied by Gerhart's This sale is given by the Ladies' Aid Society, of Calvary Methodist church, and donations are requested. Mrs. John Garson has returned to her home on Willow avenue after spending four weeks at Bloomsburg, Pa., where she visited her father, John Oberdorf, who is ill and confined in the Bloomsburg hospital. Mr. Oberdorf is quite well known here, having been employed by the Keasbey and Mattison company for about 10 years. His condition at this writing is reported to be slightly improved.

The monthly meeting of the Home and School League was held Tuesday evening, April 12, in the Ambler High School building. The President, Walter Lauer presided. The meeting was opened with a short musical program under the direction of Miss Wilson. The school orchestra gave several splendid selections, after which a duet was delightfully rendered by the "Woodward sisters." Two selections were sung by pupils from the Eighth grade. All these musical numbers received hearty applau demonstrating great appreciation of the good work being done by Miss Wilson in the music course of the school. The business matters were then taken up. The constitution and by-laws, which were submitted by the committee for approval were unanimously adopted. The president appointed the following committees: Music, chairman, Miss M. A. Wilson; program, chairman, Mrs. A. J. Williams; membership, chairman, Rev. R. L. Mayberry; publicity, chairman, Mrs. P. L. Hipple; Ways and Means, chairman, Mr. Charles Stout; social and hospitality, chairman, Mrs. W. J. Hopkins; Books, chairman, Mrs. L. E. Hansell; Refreshment, chairman, Mrs. G. M. Deck. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 3.

The principals are colored and have been having considerable difficulty in their home affairs.

The Ambler Branch of the Needlework Guild of America wihs to thank all those who so generously contributed toward the fund to adopt orphans of St. Quentin France. Up to this date $70 has been collected, which will maintain two children for one year. This amount has been forwarded to the War Relief Department of the Guild, and in a short time the Ambler Branch hopes to have the pictures of the two children adopted.

There will be a concert in the Town Hall, for the benefit of the Colony Club building fund, on Friday evening, May 6th. The Penn Charter Glee and Mandolin club will render a number of instrumental and vocal selections. Miss Helen Ozias, formerly of Ambler, will give readings. Other talent for the occasion will be mentioned in next week's "Gazette." Tickets are 50 cents and can be obtained of Mrs. George J. Crist, Mrs. Rees C. Roberts or at Roberts' drug store.

The 36th annual convention of the Needlework Guild of America will be held at the Bellevue-Stratford, Philadelphia on May 5 and 6, opening at 11 a. m. Mayor Moore will greet the visitors, as will Mrs. John Wood Stewart, founder of the guild in America. The president, Mrs. Truman H. Newberry, will respond. The Ambler branch will be represented by the following directors: Mrs. H. P. Barnes, president; Mrs. M. J. Ambler, treasurer; Miss Anna E. R. Dager, assistant secretary; Delegates—Mrs. James Bartleson; Mrs. Alexander Davidson, Mrs. Wm. Camburn, Mrs. C. B. Taylor, Mrs. F. Stephens and Mrs. John Sperry. Members and directors of the Ambler Branch are invited to attend the afternoon meeting of May 5th and the all-day meeting of May 6th. These meetings will be full of interest to all who may attend.

H. J. Dager, real estate broker, Ambler, reports the sale of the 80-acre country estate of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Mengel, located on the Evans Road, at Gwynedd Valley, Penna., to Cardinal Dennis J. Dougherty of Philadelphia. Settlement in this matter was made at the offices of the Continental-Equitable Title & Trust Co., Philadelphia., on Friday last. This property known as Gwyndale Farm is one of the show properties of the Gwynedd Valley section. It adjoins the country estates of Mr. Roland L. Taylor, Irving King, Charles L. Carter, Mrs. Herman Just and others. This property was offered at auction by Mr. Dager on December 18th last, and the sale of the premises to Cardinal Dougherty is the direct outcome of the auction. Mr. Dager also reports that he has purchased for the account of a client the 60-acre farm of the estate of Joseph Jenks Watson, located on the Newton and Langhorne pike, near Langhorne, Pa. His offices are also advertising the sale of Mr. Dager's personal home furnishings including many pieces of valuable antiques, to be held in the truck department of the Keasbey and Mattison Company's garage, on Butler Avenue, Ambler, Saturday, April 30th. Full advertisment of this sale appears in another column of the "Gazette."

The last regular meeting of the Colony Club was held April 13th. The session was called to order by the president, Mrs. Robert J. Rolston. The chairman of the different committees gave an account of work done the past month. The Membership Committee reported 147 members now enrolled. The report of the civic committee showed that much work has been accomplished in connection with the Red Cross social service work. The music committee reported that much interest had been aroused in music in the schools of Ambler and that prizes had been given for a music memory contest to be conducted in the Forest avenue school. , The finance committee showed they had been doing work by results reported. The enthusiasm committee reported wonderful progress in the building fund money having been earned by the members giving various affairs and benefits. Officers were put in nomination for election at the next meeting in May. Mrs. T. D. Just the Legislative chairman, had charge of the rest of the afternoon. As the speakers on legislation were unable to be present, being at the national convention in Cleveland, Mr. J. L. Doane, of the School of Horticulture, gave a most interesting talk on "Our Mother Earth." All who heard it were glad to have been there and regretted that more members had not heard him. The music added much to the afternoon program. The trio Mrs. Wm. C. Brister, harpist; Mrs. Talbert, violinist, and Mrs. Myers, soloist, gave Gounod's "Ave Maria" and Moore's "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms. The quartet, Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Crist, Mrs. Parsons and Mrs. Evans, gave the "Spring Song" by Mendelssohn, and "To a Wild Rose" by McDonald. It was a most enjoable meeting.

This Thursday evening a "Gospel Fleet" from Norristown, will visit Ambler and will hold an open air meeting at Butler and Ridge avenues at 8 o'clock. This will be the first opportunity the people of Ambler and vicinity will have to hear these excellent speakers and splendid singing of gaspel hymns.

Susan Smith Gibbs, widow of Henry C. Cressman, died about 1 o'clock A. M., on April 14, at her home, 131 West Airy street, Norristown after an illness of more than a month. She is survived by an only daughter, Miss Annie L. Cressman, the wellknown musician and music teacher. Mr. Cressman died about nine years ago.

Mrs. Cressman was probably the oldest native-born resident of Norristown. She was born in a house which is still standing, at Main and Barbadoes streets, on March 17, 1831, so that she was 90 years of age last month.

Mrs. Cressman and her husband were singers of note in their younger days. They and Mrs. Preston Miles and James Clemmer, now of Trenton, N. J., composed the Keystone Vocalists and their singing ability called them for engagements in Philadelphia and elsewhere, as well as in Norristown. Mr. Cressman led the choir of the First Methodist Church for many years and Mrs. Cressmn was one of the singers therein.

For seventy years Mrs. Cressman was a member of the First Methodist church and for many years taught a Bible class of seventy-five members composed of men and women. She went to Sunday school there as long as her strength permitted, and, when she could not go far, attended the First Baptist, near her home. She was an ardent advocate of temperance and one of the local pioneers in the cause. Many men and women of middle age recall the singing class that she conducted a half-century ago on Saturday afternoon for the children.

In Norristown court on Wednesday last Henry Davis, of Hoopeston received his sentence for forgery. The case was prosecuted by the First National Bank of Ambler on behalf of one of its depositors, Floyd Johnson. Davis entered Johnson's room at Hoopeston and from his trunk abstracted his savings account book, forging his name to an order of withdrawal in the amount of $35, which was cashed at the bank. Davis on securing the funds went to Philadelphia, where he purchased shoes and others things. After several days Johnson discovered the act, and suspecting Davis, the information was lodged and the latter was arrested by the state police. At first he denied the charge, but at a later hearing before Justice of the Peace Urban he confessed and signed his statement. However, later he repudiated the confession and the matter was not heard before the plead-guilty court. The case came up before Judge Miller and on the stand Davis admitted the deed. He was thereupon ordered to pay the costs in the case, refund the $35 and to serve an imprisonment of 15 months from the date of his commitment last February.

Her many Ambler friends are interested in the recital to be given by Helen Buchanan Hitner on Tuesday evening, April 26, at 8.15 in Witherspoon hall, Juniper and Walnut streets. Cards of admission may be obtained at Heppe's, 1119 Chestnut street, or by mail application to W. Perry Hitner, 4501 Richmond street, Philadelphia.

Goldstein's Cow Sale.

Twenty-six head of Juniata county cattle were sold under the hammer to the highest bidder at a sale held April 12, at the farm of Morris Goldstein, better known as the Penrose farm, near Doylestown. The total sales amounted $2590, or approximately an average of $100 a cow.

The highest priced cow went under the hammer for $170. The cattle looked exceptionally fine and every head was bought reasonably. The biggest buyer was Robert Armstrong, of Norristown, who purchased ten cows. Other buyers who purchased several cows were William Fluck, of Jamison; H. Goldsmith, of Warrington, and John Goss, of Furlong.

Mr. Goldstein, who recently purchased the Penrose farm, intends to run cattle sales regularly at the farm. He formerly conducted a large farm near Fort Washington ,Montgmery county.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and, Mrs. Joseph Bartolo, of West Elm street, Conshohocken, announced the engagement of their daughter, Julia, to Frank W. Mastrola, formerly of New York, at dinner, Sunday night, attended by relatives and friends from New York, Jersey City, Bristol, Philadelphia and Norristown.

The dinner was served in the prettily decorated dinning room. Later, the guests were entertained with vocal and instrumental music.

Sleep Sickness Fatal.

Jennie Zambella, of 434 Moore street, Norristown, two and one-half years old, and who for the last three weeks has been afflicted with sleeping sickness, died on April 12, at her parents' home.

From the time that the child was first taken sick she passed into stupors from which she was roused with extreme difficulty, each one becoming of longer duration.

Conshohocken School Changes.

On the morning of April 12, 176 pupils of the primary grades of the Conshohocken public school, who have been on half time since the beginning of the spring term, February 1, resumed former schedule of two sessions each day.

The rooms affected are 2A, 2B and 3c. These accomodate 132 pupils while the enrollment is 176.

In consequence of the over-crowded condition it was deemed to two classes, one class to attend school in the morning and the other half to attend in the afternoon.

It seems that the pupils have lost interest in their work under this schedule.

In the three rooms there is a total of 132 seats to accommodate 166 pupils while in the room occupied by the continuation school pupils there are 24 seats and an average attendance of 12 pupils.

Supt. of Schools Hotenstein changed 12 pupils from the congested rooms to the room occupied by the continuation pupils.

A number of additional desks will be placed in the rooms, and an extra teacher has been engaged. The desks which have been placed on the put aside list were repaired and will be used until better arrangements can be made.

Lansdalers Work at Soldiers' Park.

The site of the Lansdale Soldiers' Memorial park was a scene of activity recently when men of the borough turned in to do their bit in expediting the completion of the park tract and athletic stadium which is the community's memorial to the World War ex-service men of Lansdale.

Thursday April 7, was "Community Day," but because of rain the get-together event at the site of the park was postponed until the 12th. Other features, such as sale of tags, a pie, cake and candy sale and a borough assembly in the evening, took place according to schedule. About $500 was realized. Mrs. J. B. B. Stryker, who directed the sale of tags, a pie, cake and candy that source. The tags were sold by Boy Scouts, pupils of the Lansdale High School and pupils of the Lansdale Parochial School.

The response at the park site was not large, but in the afternoon citizens responded with a will and pick and shovel were never before so popular in Lansdale.

The park and athletic stadium will be completed this summer and there will be a borough holiday when the community project is dedicated.

Russell Appointed P. & R. Traffiic Head.

Plan This as Ninth Congress District.

According to the provisions of the new Congressional apportionment bill introduced, in the senate, at Harrisburg, and Bucks-Montgomery Congresstional district which will remain instact as at present constituted, will henceforth be known as the Ninth District, instead of the Eighth.

This change in the designation is due to the increase of one in the number of districts which are credited to Philadelphia.

While there has been a marked increase in the population of Montgomery county, according to the 1920 census, it was not sufficient to make it possible for the county to become a separate Congressional district, as was hoped would be the case.

Points About Silver Dollar.

The United States mint has resumed the coining of the silver dollar. The dollar is of the same design as that of these now in circulation. The coining is in accordance with the provisions of the Pittman Act. According to the Chief Clerk of the Mint at Philadelphia the Parental Mint is now coining the new dollar at the rate of thousands daily and the call is for an unlimited amount.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Henry Chapman, one of the foremost numismatists in the United States, it has been possible to give a short accurate history of the silver dollar as coined in the Parent Mint.

The coining of the silver dollar commenced in 1794. On the obverse of this coin there was the head of Liberty facing to the right, the hair flowing freely. There were fifteen stars encircling the design, 7 to right and 8 to the left. Above the head was the word "Liberty," and below the date. On the reverse there was a wreath, inside of which was a small eagle with outstretched wings. Around the outside of the wreath were the words "United States of America," instead of having the edge milled, as is the case with the silver coins of today, the edge was lettered, "Hundred Cents One Dollar or Unit."

With a few changes, this design was followed until 1804. In this year the coining was discontinued.

In 1836 the coining of the dollar was resumed. The design was entirely different from that previous. On the obverse, was Liberty seated to the right, with the head turned to the left, the right hand, resting on a shield, on which is a scroll inscribed "Liberty," In the left hand is a staff with a Liberty Cap. There were a number of changes in this design. On the first ones the reverse had an eagle flying to the left amid 26 stars typifying the number of states in the Union at the time. The design of "Liberty Seated," was carried out till the year 1873.

In 1878 the coming again in evidence The design, however, was entirely different from that of previous.

The new type has been known as the Bland dollar. It was engraved by George T. Morgan. It has been stated by many that this is one of the most beautiful designs ever executed in United States silver coinage. On the left; above the had "E Pluribus Unum.' obverse is a large Liberty Head facing to the left; abov the head "E Pluribus Unum." On the right are six stars and on the left seven, making a total of thirteen, the original states On the reverse is an eagle with upraised wings holding an olive branch in its right talon and three arrows in its left talon. Above are the words "In God We Trust." Around the border are the words "United States of America, One Dollar." It is said that the head was posed for by a young Philadelphian. This design was continued until the the year 1904.

The coiners have once more resumed this place Although the same design is being used, the dies are absolutely new.

Milk Prices Reducd.

Quakertown millmen announce a reduction from twelve to ten cents per quart. The reduction in a measure is due to a local milk war, covering several weeks, when D. D. Roe, formerly of Pittston, and who now conducts a modern dairy farm near Quakertown announced he would retail the fluid at ten cnts per quart in Quakertown. The cut is hailed with glee by the general public, which will mean to many families a monthly saving of several dollars.

Why is "Enterprise" Scratch Feed Superior.
Because: It contains grains that your poultry can eat and digest.
Because: It contains sound old Ohio corn, cracked by us, with nothing taken out. No hard Argentine corn is used or no fancy brushed cracked corn with the good nourishing qualities removed for other products.
Because: It contains selected, local wheat that is well dried and yet not too hard to hinder digestion.
Because: It contains Pennsylvania buckwheat from an excellent crop.
Because: It contains natural white oats sound grain barley and large striped sunflower seed.
Because. It is scientifically proportioned, not just cracked corn with a scattering of other grain to give color. It is mixed with correct proportion to assure the highest food value to your poultry.

Big Raise for Johnson.

Although the Auditor-General's Department at Harrisburg plans to drop a number of high salaried chair warmers when the new chief takes his office next month. Charles Johnson, of Montgomery county, will hold tight and at an increase in salary.

The Republican leader there will be retained under his present title of Deputy Auditor-General with an increase in salary from $5500 to $7500. He will be "designated as disbursing officer, under the supervision of the Auditor General, to handle disbursements of $62,000,000."

Relieves Rheumatic Pains.

"I frequently hear Chamberlain's Cough Remedy praised by friends and acquaintances which only tends to strengthen my good opinion of it" writes Mrs. Fred Arter, Zanesville, Ohio. Try it when you have a cough or cold and see for yourself what an excellent medicine it is. apr

Hold Borough Limits.

Lansdale Borough Council has refused to extend the borough limits of Lansdale so as to include what is known as the foundry section of Lansdale.

Residents of the "foundry section" petitioned council to extend the limits of the borough to include the section in which they reside. That section in Hatfield township.

Pottstown council sliced $10 a month from the highway commissioner's salary and two cents an hour from laborers' wages.

Suburban League Ready

At a meeting held at the Hotel Walton, the Philadelphia Suburban League reorganized for the tenth season, by electing Harold C. Pike, Jenkintown, president; Warren M. Cornell, Hatboro, vice president; Mr. Foehl, of Glenside, treasurer, and Charles Hetzell, of Fort Washington, secretary. The clubs represented in the league are Glenside, Fort Washington, Willow Grove, Southampton, Wyndmoor and Hatboro. They propose a twenty-game schedule, beginning May 14. Connie Mack and the president, were appointed as members of the protest board. The three clubs in the league last year, that were located within the city limits, were dropped from the league. It is expected that they will have a very successful season and it is their purpose to play amateur ball. Each club must have at least five local players in every game.

For a Severe Cold.

"Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured my daughter Anna of a severe cold and cough a few years ago and ever since then I have never missed an opportunity to recommend this medicine to anyone suffering from throat or lung troubles. I cannot speak too highly in praise of it," writes Mrs. D. J. Shelley, Earlville, N. Y. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no narcotic and may be given to children with perfect confidence. It is a pleasant syrup so they do not object to taking it. apr

Wills Probated.

Louisa W. Strawbridge, late of Springfield, disposes of an estate valued at $1841,150. Testatrix gives $2000 to the Chestnut Hill Hospital and $1000 to St. Paul's Episcopal church, Chestnut Hill, to be used for such purposes as the rector and vestry think best. Both legacies are to be given free of the collateral inheritance tax. The residue of the estate goes to the husband and children of the decedent. The husband, John, is named as executor.

The will of Elizabeth M. Wilson, late of Whitemarsh, disposes of an estate valued at $1200. The Cold Point Baptist church is given $200. The residue is divided between a son George and a daughter Mary, who are named as executors.

Edwin S. Hallowell, late of Jenkintown, in his will, disposes of an estate valued at $21,000, which he gives to his wife, Mary. The latter, and the daughters, Hannah and Emma, and the Jenkintown National Bank are named as executors.

Chamberlain's Tablets Are Just What You Need.

When bilious
When constipated
When you have no appetite
When your digestion is impaired
When your liver is torbid
When you feel dull and stupid after eating
When you have headache.

They will improve your appetite, cleanse and invigorate your stomach, regulate your bowels and make you feel "fine as a fiddle." They are easy to take and agreeable in effect. apr

Souderton Votes Down New School Proposal.

By a vote of 84 in the affirmitive to 212 in the negative, the residents of Souderton, at a special election, defeated the proposal of the School Board for the creation of a bonded indebtedness of $40,000, the proceeds to be applied in the erection and equipment of a modern High School building.

One of the officials of the borough, in speaking of the outcome attributed it to the criticisms which have been directed towards the present school administration.

The instance recently was the second time within a year that Souderton rejected the proposal to increase the debt of the borough for school purposes. March 23, 1920, movement to increase the debt $60,000 was beaten by 136 votes.

It is stated that a feeling against the Director's took definite shape some time ago., when Harry F. Musselman, resigned from the Board, after Frank Moyer, a former Director had been beaten for re-election. The Board appointed the defeated Moyer to Musselman's place.

After the $60,000 project had been turned down last year, the Board boosted the tax rate for the schools to 25 mills, and placed a per capita tax of $5. This move, with the Moyer appointment, caused much feeling.

With Moyer on the Board are Henry D. Detwiler, Samuel S. Alderfer, Andrew Benner and Jordan Allen.

It is intimated by some Soudertonians that the popular sentiment is not really against the idea of the loan, but that the voters would not permit the present Board to put it over.

Stock Profits Are Up To You

Did you ever stop to think that success in animal husbandry is a fifty-fifty proposition—half depends on the stock, half on the man? Are you doing your full share in your partnership with your horses, cattle and swine? If not, the loss is all yours. That can't be divided.

To get the most out of your animals, whether it's work milk or meat, you must keep them healthy and vigorous. And the easiest way to do this is to use

Pratts Animal Regulator

America's original stock tonic and conditioner. For nearly 50 years this natural health improver has been the stand-by of the most successful live-stock breeders. It adds to the ration elements—lacking in the winter ration—which are so necessary to maintain health, vigor and energy.

Begin the regular use of Pratts Animal Regulator now. See how quickly your stock improves in strength, growth and production. Note how much bigger and stronger the youngsters are. Watch results—then tems of Passing Interest Condensed in Short Paragraphs.

Junior Athletic Association Is Planned —Baseball Next Saturday—Odd Fellows Entertain—Personal and Miscellaneous.

Joseph Barry, who while employed here, was arrested charged with the larceny of chickens from Samuel Nemorofsky, of this place, who alleges to have lost 18 fowls. Only two were found on Barry just as he was boarding a trolley car for Philadelphia. Barry's trial came up last week in Norristown, and as a result he is now serving a year's sentence in the county jail.

Mrs. Samuel Yeakle, of this place, and Mrs. H. W. Stahlnecker, of Flourtown are in Washington, D. C., for a week attending a convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert White, of Philadelphia, were recent visitors to this place.

Robert Yarnall, Jr., who was laid up for some time suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, has sufficiently recovered to be about again

The weather permitting, the local club will play the Conshohocken club on the home diamond next Saturday. This will be a practice game for both teams and will also serve as a try-out for a number of new players on each club. The Conshohocken team is now a member of the Montgomery County league, having secured the franchise of the local club.

Word has been received that Mrs. Morris Manchey, daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Manchey, of this place, is quite ill with scarlet fever and is confined in a Philadelphia hospital. However, it is learned that at this writing she is as well as can be expected and her recovery is looked for.

Arbuckle-Gordon company are furnishing the lumber for Howard J. Dager's bungalow, which is being erected near Point Pleasant, Bucks county. Mr. Dager is a well known real estate dealer at Ambler.

Great preparations are being made for the big entertainment and bazaar to be held Saturday evening, April 30, in the Fort Washington Fire company's house. The event is being given as a benefit to the local company and from present indications it will be a splendid sucesss. There will be a large number of useful and ornamental articles on sale and in addition prizes will be awarded.

Robert Brown, carpenter of Ambler, is making some repairs to Arbuckle-Gordon company's buildings.

Rev. N. B. Groton, rector of St. Thomas' church, has returned from a visit to Rhode Island.

A motorcycle has been procured for the local police department.

Settlement was made last week in the transfer for a portion of the Vansant estate farm to Dr. R. V. Mattison.

Miss Mary Ames, who was ill for several months, has again resumed her duties with the Bell Telephone company.

From what can be learned there appears to be a lack of interest in the organization of a good baseball team for Fort Washington. Notices were sent out recently calling on all young men of the community, desiring to play on the team to come out to practice, but it is stated, that only a few answered the call." We should have a good team here," said one fan recently, 'and it is up to our local boys to make it such but if they fail to come out and make an effort to play on the team there is but one thing to do," he added, "and that is to get players from wherever they can be had." A meeting was held one evening last week for the purpose of furthering the movement of a junior athletic association. According to the plans, so far under consideration, there will be a baseball team, tennis and a foot ball team organized for the boys. The membership desired for the present is about 100, and each of the boys is expected to pay a small fee of $1 for his membership card. A house-to-house canvass is likely to be made in the near future for members.

It certainly took "Uncle Sam" a long time to deliver a postal card that had been mailed from Mt. Airy to Fort Washington. Last Wednesday morning when the Rev. Dr. Charles Santee, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed church, went to the postoffice to receive his morning's mail he was handed a postal card that had been mailed a year before, informing him of the change of

A meeting to organize a parent-teachers' association was held at Fort Washington school on Thursday evening. Through the efforts of Mr. Furlong, Mr. Mayberry, and the Fort Washington Glee club, a most enjoyable and interesting evening resulted. A meeting to elect officers will be held within two weeks. All members of the community are invited. An entertainment will follow the election. Further notice will be given.

CENTRE SQUARE.

Work has been started on repairing the DeKalb Street pike from the Norristown borough line eastward. The road is being patched and the work has progressed as far as Hallowell road. Between Franklinville and Centre Square the pike is in a wretched condition, and because of the many deep holes the road has become quite dangerous to travel Work on the Skippack pike is progressing favorably. However, the unfavorable weather condition lately has greatly hindered the work. The pike is now being rebuilt northward from Blue Bell and the road is closed to travel between School house road to Blue Bell pike.

A surprising report is the sale of the Michael Brothers fruit farm, of near Washington Square. $25,000 is said to have been paid for the property and it is said the buyer is Michael Minnick. The former, it is reported will make their future home with their brother-in-law, Benjamin Murphy. The Michael Brothers were well known among fruit growers of eastern Pennsylvania and were among the few successful peach growers of this section. A few years ago an attempt was made by them to grow asparagus all the year around and the undertaking, while successful, proved rather expensive and was abandoned after a couple of years.

Clean-Up Week For Montgomery County, April 25 to 30.

At a meeting of the Montgomery County Council of Social Welfare held on April 13th at Norristown, it was decided to have the week beginning April 25th as "Clean-Up Week" for Montgomery County.

There are certain rural sections that are as yet not represented on the council and Miss Lillian M. Brown, the state health nurse was appointed a committee to interest the people of these unrepresented districts in clean-up week and to have some one from each district report on the work done.

In these rural sections stress is laid on sanitary conditions around the stables, manure pits, and outside toilets. These are the fly breeding places and if proper attention is given to them early in the season, it will mean more than twice as much work done later. It will be well to use chloride of lime, unslaked lime and kerosene in these places. The churches are asked to announce from the pulpits the date set for clean-up week and to ask for the cooperation of the public. It is also requested that the teachers in the schools interest the children in doing their share toward making the week a true clean-up week. They can see that the dollars are clean, that the front and back yards are not only clean but attractive.

The Boy Scouts, as organizations, are asked to do their part in the work. In some communities they are specializing in the fly campaign, making fly straps and distributing or selling them to the public.

Ambler Advances in Race.

Ambler High School now stands .667 in the race for th North Penn League cup, after defeating Jenkintown by a score of 12 to 2 on Tuesday afternoon.

Ambler started with Richards in the box. Richards struck seven out and then gave Colgan, Ambler's southpaw, the ball in the seventh inning. Colgan dealt two strike outs.

Biddle, Jenkintown's star twirler, was knocked out in the first inning by Ambler's heavy hitting. Chadwick, Jenkintown's southpaw then mounted the hill, but could not stop Ambler's well developed batting streak.

Ambler's fielding was good, which proved the Doylestown defeat was due to Ambler's off day.

SAFETY AND SERVICE ATC
A BUSINESS IN ITSELF
When you are debating with yourself whether to name an individual or a trust company as executor of your will and trustee of your estate, bear in mind this vital distinction:
With most individuals trusteeship is a side issue, for which they have no special preparation. Administering wills and managing estates is the business of a trust company, for which it has been organized and is completely equipped.
It costs your estate only a moderate fee no more than for an individual to secure the business like methods of this company as executor or co-executor and trustee.
